

Co-operative Commercial Clubs Organized

arose and stated that a date so late as September would be too late a date and stated that the Coldren Bros. had arranged to bring a party of homeseekers into this state at a very early date, and also that it would be necessary to get a low rate of transportation to get the homeseekers into this country. He also suggested on account of the central locality of Amarillo that that city would be a suitable location for the next meeting and suggested a date not later than June 30, to assemble to perfect a permanent organization. This suggestion was then put in the form of a motion and carried. The invitation also added by Mr. Seth B. Hollman of Amarillo who endorsed Mr. Hamlin's idea, and which was also sanctioned by our president, B. D. Oldham. Mr. Hamlin then added to his argument by saying that the reason that he suggested Amarillo was because of the fact of its locality and being convenient to Tucumcari, and said that in order to get this before the house, that he suggested this meeting not later than June 30. Mr. Wyatt then made a motion that the convention have its next meeting in Tucumcari in the fall. Motion carried. A motion was made that the time and place for the next meeting be determined at the meeting which is to be held June 30 in Amarillo. Motion carried. These various motions were made and amended several times. Judge Hamlin then arose and said that he would make a motion that an amendment be made to the amendment to the effect that Tucumcari be acceptable to the Association as the meeting place of the next first Convention of the Organization hereafter to be formed in Amarillo. The President B. D. Oldham then requested Mr. Hamlin to re-state his motion, which he did something as follows: "I move that it be the expression of this assembly and that resolutions be passed recommending Tucumcari as the meeting place of the next and first regular convention of this association hereafter to be formed in Amarillo. Motion carried.

C. B. Schmitt of Chicago then read a most excellent paper on the "Co-operation of Railroads with Commercial Clubs in regard to immigration and colonization.

The Association was next given a treat and what seemed to be a most vital question now confronting the west, was how to store away food for stock to get the best results, which was delivered by J. E. Mondell of the Government Experiment Farm, located at Tucumcari, under the head of "Silos and Dairying."

On account of the smoker and banquet which was in readiness at the Harvey House, a motion was then made and seconded that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried.

BANQUET

The banquet given at the Gran Quivira (Harvey House) at least equalled if not surpassed anything of the kind ever attempted in Clovis.

The speaking was par excellence and a general feeling of good fellowship prevailed. The visitors numbering fourteen were made to feel at home and they joined the Clovis aggregation in taking up the boasting spirit with vim and vigor.

The music furnished by the Clovis orchestra was superb and was repeatedly encored. The orchestra was composed of J. H. Croft, clarinet; Glenn Huff, cornet; H. G. Paul, violin; Cliff Oliver, traps and assisted by Mrs. H. D. Terrell, pianist.

Much credit is due the banquet committee and especially Dr. Clyn Smith and C. V. Steed for the success of this part of the program of entertainment.

Following is the program and list of speakers at the banquet:

- "Why We Need a Banquet Hall."—C. E. Dennis.
- "Hospitality of the West"—O. L. Owen.
- "Good Roads," S. B. Holman.
- "New Land Laws for the Southwest,"—G. A. Richardson.
- "Anything," C. B. Schmitt.
- "Silver Glistening Waters of Portales,"—Sam J. Nixon.
- "Nothing," (a subject assigned by the committee)—W. D. McBee.
- "Making the Best of Conditions"—Rev. W. R. Evans.
- "Co-operation,"—F. A. White.
- "General,"—H. Wyatt.
- "Southwest," A. W. Hockenhul.
- "Portales Valley"—J. Rogers.

The delegation was met at the depot by the Clovis band which furnished music throughout the afternoon and evening business sessions.

B. D. Oldham, of Clovis, was chosen temporary chairman of the organization which will perfect a permanent organization in Amarillo soon. The entire affair was a complete success.

Reception for Rev.

and Mrs. J. T. Moore

A number of friends of Rev. and Mrs. Jeremiah T. Moore gathered at the Presbyterian parsonage Monday evening to welcome Bro. Moore and wife back to Clovis after their vacation. Mrs. Moore has been visiting her children in Mexico while Mr. Moore spent most of his time during his absence in sunny Tennessee.

An interesting contest consisted of a story with omissions left for the guesser to place the title of some of Dickens books in order to make good sense.

Some, for amusement, made up a burlesque on those present causing a bit of merriment. Delicious ice cream and cake were served.

H. D. Terrell returned Monday from a trip to Roswell.

Rev. Callaway left Monday for a several days visit to Alamogordo.

Not price, but quality.—Richardson Studio. Best to those who know. Also kodak finishing.

Put in your orders for Velvet Ice Cream at Irvin's Confectionery. Orders delivered to any part of the city. Phone No. 258.

Carl Love left Monday for Comanche, Oklahoma to be at the bedside of his sister, Jesse Love, who is critically ill at that place. About a month ago she left Clovis, accompanied by her parents, in hopes that the change would benefit her. However, there has been a serious relapse and she is again very low.

Si Writes His Wife.

Clovis N. M. June 12, '13.

Dear Darlin Mirandy:

I kum back to Clovis yesterday an found much of a change in the ol burg since you and I wuz here.

Everybody seems rite peert and industrus.

Now deer darlin sugar plum, don't get excited whin I tell yez that this yere town of Clovis is cumin rite too the frunt. The railroad frum Gallvestin to Clovis is bildin rite along at an alarmin rate and will make this the divisin pint and terminis. The hospitall will be bilt sune and everybody is expectin big times.

The merchants air gettin ready fur the rush and hav big stocks of gudes.

The Clovis Orchestree hazent been able to get on all the white pants in town as I seen some left in Luikarts winders.

Mister Duckwith still wares all the flowers he kin git his hands on, but the Harvey House is payin fer most av im.

Miss Kendall, of the Kendall store, can serve soop at a Masons bankwett without spillin it on enybody ez gud as she ken sell close when you say you air jest lookin aroun.

Mister Sam Hollen is learnin haw ter use the telephone and as sune as he does will have one put in.

Yu reckonset that feller Awalt, the County Clerk, wail, he's mad at the komishners one day and lovin' thim the next. That's him. And John Taylor has graduated frum the moto-skule skule and bot a automobile.

County Komishner Ben Crawford hez a bran new set av teeth and wuz showin' them to amn Tucumehari folks a few days ago.

Cash Ramey replevined his horse frum a thief and has the latter in jale.

John Barry ain't enny nearer bein married than he wuz when you wuz here but he's a heap more stilush.

Tom Clair don't sing neer so much coz hes marred now.

Tom Mabray aint enny better and still wants it all but he dont aet in the frunt seat as often as he use ter.

Yew know Mirandy thet the Chambermaids of Commerce hed an orful big time here tuther day and the way some uv them fellers licked their lips after eaten peech sherbit wuz funney.

Sacketary Flemin is bizi markin out a line frum Tucumcherry tew Clovis an everybody is interested in the project.

Mister Fltshoes residence burned down er up whichever yew call it and now Flt aint got no home.

Now darlin' I'd jest luvv ew have you with me out hear, ez the birds air singin after all the good rains and if I could but hear ther melodius musick blended with yer own sweet voice and see the marvelous land-shape reflected in ther mirror of yer own hazel eyes, I'd be as happy ez Charlie White on the forth of July.

With love fer yew ez deap as the skiae air blue, I raymain, Yer ol man, Si.

Now that the Democratic party is in power and has the giving out of the federal pie, the Democratic editors (for revenue only) from Texas and Oklahoma are "getting in their work" on New Mexico editors in great shape. They are "sleek," no doubt about it. They have their little political legerdemain scheme all "cut-and-dried" before they spring it on our state or local federal officials.

Strip Open for Filing.
